Details of amenities

Upon entering, you are welcomed by an impressive and spacious entrance hall adorned with marble floors and a grand staircase leading to the first floor.

First Floor:

The apartment's entrance opens into a generous, circular hallway complete with built-in storage and a separate guest WC. From here, you step into the breathtaking living room of approximately 100 m², featuring an expansive 8-meter-wide window façade at the front, offering panoramic views over the canal. This living level is defined by an exceptional ceiling height of three meters, an abundance of natural light, elegant built-in bookcases, and ample wall space for displaying art. A cozy gas fireplace completes the ambiance.

At the rear, you'll find the bespoke open-plan kitchen, fully equipped with all imaginable built-in appliances and designed with attention to both detail and comfort.

At the heart of the living space, an elegant open staircase leads to the second floor.

Second Floor:

This level hosts a spacious, multifunctional room (ideal as a TV or family room) with access to a sunny and sheltered rooftop terrace at the rear. Additionally, there is a separate study, a bedroom with en-suite bathroom, and a guest toilet.

Third Floor:

Here, you will find three generously sized bedrooms. The master bedroom at the rear features a wall of built-in wardrobes and direct access to a luxurious bathroom with a bathtub, walk-in shower, and washbasin. A separate toilet is also available on this floor, along with two large bedrooms at the front.

Fourth Floor:

The top floor offers a fifth bedroom with a private landing, a bathroom with shower and washbasin, and a separate WC. This floor is perfect for use as a guest suite, creative studio, or private workspace.

All about the location

This beautiful and spacious house is centrally located on the Keizersgracht in the heart of the city center near the Nine Streets and between the many art galleries and international museums. Much can be found within walking distance, such as the Museumplein with all museums and the concert hall, the Vondelpark, the old town, the Leidseplein, and the P.C. Hooftstraat. Schools, shops, entertainment venues and cultural activities are also located in the immediate vicinity. In addition, there is good connections with public transport; various tram and bus stops on the Raadhuisstraat are within walking distance. A car can be parked in various garages in the area or on the canal.
